In Loving Memory of

Curtis Dawson
(October 3, 1989 - April 5, 2008)

When ties of love are broken, And loved ones have to part, It leaves a wound that never heals, In ever-aching heart.

This memorial website was created to remember our dearest Curtis Dawson who was born in Missouri on October 3, 1989 and passed away on April 5, 2008.

You will live forever in our memories and hearts.

FOR MY SON

Something will remind me

I never know just when,

It might be something someone says

And it all comes back again.

The times we spent together

The happiness, the fun

Once again I feel the pain

Of life without my son.

It's said that times a healer,

I'm not sure that this is true.

Theres not a day goes by my son,

That I don't cry for you.

EASTER BLESSINGS

For God so loved the world,
that he gave his only begotten
Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. John 3:16

For a Cheerful Easter

His Smile

Some called him "Big Curt", some called him "Turtle"
His smile was his trademark,
without a hurdle.
A room would brighten when Curtis came in
'cause the first thing you saw,
would be his grin!

A son and brother so precious;
a friend so true!
Whatever he had,
he'd share it with you!
A thought, a deed, a kind word for a while
But always, oh always,
He'd share 'His Smile'.

Our hearts are breaking,
our thoughts are going wild!
We've lost our friend:
We've lost our child!
"But only for a while,"
I heard Jesus say
"He's been chosen for the Master's Bouquet!"

Hand selected by Jesus from this 'garden of life' Gone to Heaven!-He's through with this strife!
Why is he gone?
God only knows.
But Oh what a treasure,
A "smiling rose!"

"I Love You sweetheart"

*They say that theres a reason. They say that time will heal.
But neither time nor reason will change the way we feel....
For no-one knows the heartache that lies behind our smiles.
No-one knows how many times we've broken down and cried...
We want to tell you something so there won't be any doubt.
YOU are so wonderful to think about...
BUT SO HARD TO LIVE WITHOUT!*

"PRECIOUS CHILD"

In my dreams; you are alive and well

Precious Child, Precious Child,
In my mind; I see you clear as a bell
Precious Child, Precious Child,
In my soul; there is a hole
That can never be filled,
But in my heart, there is hope
'couse you are with me still.
In my heart, you live on
Always there never gane,
Precious child; you left to soon
Tho it may be true that we're apart
You will live forever...in my heart.
In my plans; I was the first to leave
Precious Child, Precious Child,
But in this world; I was left here to grieve,

Precious Child, my Precious Child,

In my soul, there is a hole, that can never be filled,

But in my heart there is hope,

And you are with me still.

In my heart you live on

Always there never gone

Precious Child; you left to soon,

Tho' it may be true that we are apart,

You will live forever in my heart.

God knows I want to hold you, See you, touch you

And maybe there is a heaven and same day I will again.

Please know you are not forgotten, until then

In my heart you live on,

Always there, never gone

Tho' it may be true that we're apart

You will live forever...in my heart.

Miss you my Son, Forever Mom..

Every beating of our hearts:

The world may never notice
If a Snowdrop doesn't bloom,
Or even pause to wonder
If the petals fall too soon.

But every life that ever forms,
Or ever comes to be,
Touches the world in some small way
For all eternity.

The little one we longed for
Was swiftly here and gone.
But the love that was then planted
Is a light that still shines on.

And though our arms are empty,
Our hearts know what to do.
Every beating of our hearts
Says that we love you

One night I dreamed I was walking along the beach with the Lord.

Many scenes from my life flashed across the sky.

In each scene I noticed footprints in the sand.

Sometimes there were two sets of footprints,
other times there were one set of footprints.

This bothered me because I noticed that during the low periods of my life, when I was suffering from anguish, sorrow or defeat,
I could see only one set of footprints.

So I said to the Lord,
"You promised me Lord,
that if I followed you,
you would wal with me always.

But I have noticed that during the most trying periods of my life there have only been one set of footprints in the sand.
Why, when I needed you the most, you have not been there for me?"

The Lord replied,
"The times when you have seen only one set of footprints in the sand, is when I carried you."

The background is a textured, light brown or beige color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the left is smaller and more tightly closed, while the one on the right is larger and more open, showing its petals. The roses are rendered in a soft, painterly style, blending into the background.

The background of the image is a textured, mottled olive-green color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the left is smaller and more tightly closed, while the one on the right is larger and more open, showing its petals. The roses are rendered in a soft, painterly style, blending into the background.

Let not your heart be troubled
Let not your soul be sad
Easter is a time of joy
When all hearts should be glad

Glad to know that Jesus Christ
Made it possible for men
To have their sins forgiven
And, like Him, to love again
So at this joyous season
May the wondrous Easter Story

Bereaved Parents Wish List

I wish my child hadn't died. I wish I had him back!!

I wish you wouldn't be afraid to speak my child's name. My child lived and was very important to me. I need to hear that he was important to you also.

If I cry and get emotional when you talk about my child, I wish you knew that it isn't because you have hurt me. My child's death is the cause of my tears. You have talked about my child and you have allowed me to share my grief. I thank you for both.

Being a bereaved parent is not contagious, so I wish you wouldn't shy away from me. I need you now more than ever.

I need diversions, so I do want to hear about you, but I also want you to hear about me. I might be sad and I might cry, but I wish you would let me talk about my child; my favorite topic of the day.

I know that you think of and pray for me often. I also know that my child's death pains you too. I wish you would let me know these things through a phone call, a card or note, or a real big hug.

I wish you wouldn't expect my grief to be over. These first years are traumatic for me, but I wish you could understand that my grief will never be over. I will suffer the death of my child until the day I die.

I am working hard in my recovery, but I wish you could understand that I will never fully recover. I will always miss my child and I will always grieve that they are gone.

I wish you wouldn't expect me "not to think about it" or "be happy". Neither will happen for a very long time, so don't frustrate yourself.

I don't want to have a "Pity party", but I do wish you would let me grieve. I must hurt before I can heal.

I wish you understood how my life has shattered. I know it is miserable for you to be around me when I'm feeling miserable. Please be as patient with me as I am with you. When I say, "I'm doing okay", I wish you could understand that I don't "feel" okay and that I struggle daily.

I wish you knew that all of the grief reactions I'm having are very normal. Depression, anger, hopelessness and overwhelming sadness are all to be expected. So please excuse me when I'm quiet and withdrawn or irritable and cranky.

Your advice to "take it one day at a time" is excellent advice.

However, a day is too much and too fast for me right now. I wish you could understand that I'm doing good to handle an hour at a time.

Please excuse me if I seem rude, certainly not my intent. Sometimes the world around me goes too fast and I need to get off. When I walk away, I wish you would let me find a quiet place to spend time alone.

I wish you understood that grief changes people. When my child died, a big part of me died with him. I am not the same person I was before my child died and I will never be that person again.

I wish very much that you could understand ~ understand my loss and my grief.

But....

I pray daily that you will never understand

ALL MY LOVE XOXO

CATHY~MOM OF DAVID GIRAUD

FOR PADDY'S DAY~LUV U

March 5, 2010

mom 2 Waylon Kitchens

Along the way..

March 5, 2010

The sunset along my horizon, is the rising sun above your hills.

it brings the night; a dark illusion,
as it welcomes your morning and your day it fills.

During these moments i tend to wonder...

When you walk home late at night,
along the empty cobblestone streets,
and the sun peaks through the landscape into site,
Do you think of me?

With a pack on your back and trails at your feet,
all the creatures, the streams and beauty you see,
during cultural traditions and with all the new people you meet,
Do you think of me?

When awe of nature's creations take your breath away,
and your ears are filled with sweet melody
of the wind, and willows, and booming waterfalls forte,
Do you think of me?

Well...

When my night falls and darkness surrounds me,
I think of your day and pray that its great.
When the morning light is in site and the sun comes to greet me,
I hope it left you a colorful sunset and in a peaceful state.
As I travel and go about my life with laughs and smiles,

I imagine where you are and that you are smiling too.
If trials and tribulations obstruct my path, or if I've had a bad day,
I think of you and hope that maybe once in a while, along your way---
You think of me too.

I am so touched for joining this memorial website, for it helps me carry through my lonely, painful journey. Life is so depressing without Patrick. Thank you again from the bottom of my heart for the condolences, the candles... Mostly for thinking of my loving son Patrick.

I am reading a book called "Mathew, tell me about Heaven" to understand my loss and perhaps get a glimpse of hope, faith. Have you read it? Losing a child is the ultimate pain to endure. What is this new life? I am helpless!

My deepest condolences

January 19, 2010

My deepest condolences. May these few words from the Holy Scriptures bring you comfort in your time of grief...

John 11:32-45

32 And so Mary, when she arrived where Jesus was and caught sight of him, fell at his feet, saying to him: “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.” 33 Jesus, therefore, when he saw her weeping and the Jews that came with her weeping, groaned in the spirit and became troubled; 34 and he said: “Where have YOU laid him?” They said to him: “Lord, come and see.” 35 Jesus gave way to tears. 36 Therefore the Jews began to say: “See, what affection he used to have for him!” 37 But some of them said: “Was not this [man] that opened the eyes of the blind man able to prevent this one from dying?”

38 Hence Jesus, after groaning again within himself, came to the memorial tomb. It was, in fact, a cave, and a stone was lying against it. 39 Jesus said: “TAKE the stone away.” Martha, the sister of the deceased, said to him: “Lord, by now he must smell, for it is four days.” 40 Jesus said to her: “Did I not tell you that if you would believe you would see the glory of God?” 41 Therefore they took the stone away. Now Jesus raised his eyes heavenward and said: “Father, I thank you that you have heard me. 42 True, I knew that you always hear me; but on account of the crowd standing around I spoke, in order that they might believe that you sent me forth.” 43 And when he had said these things, he cried out with a loud voice: “Laz´a-rus, come on out!” 44 The [man] that had been dead came out with his feet and hands bound with wrappings, and his countenance was bound about with a cloth. Jesus said to them: “Loose him and let him go.”

45 Therefore many of the Jews that had come to Mary and that beheld what he did put faith in him;

Memories

all the gray you turned into colors...

grandma Helen

I found a penny today . laying on the ground. But its not just a penny. This little coin I've found . Find a penny came from Heaven. That's what my grandpa told me .He said Angels toss them down. He said when an Angel miss you , they toss down a penny.sometime just to cheer you up. To make you smile out of a frown. so do't pass by that penny .When you're felling blue. It my be a penny from Heaven That an Angel tossed to you

Mom

Lacey, thank you so much for writing these wonderful memories....it is more comforting to me then you can imagine, knowing that he has friends that love him and think of him daily as I do. I think we are all guilty of taking each other for granted until that special person is ripped from your lives. I guess that is a lesson we have learned from losing our wonderful, loving Curtis....

Lacey

Hey-

I wanted to share a song with you Curtis. I listen to it almost everyday ..sometimes multiple times a day! It's called Address in the Stars.

verse 1: i stumbled across your picture today i could barely breathe the moment stopped me cold and grabbed me like a thief i dialed your number but you wouldnt be there i knew the whole time but its still not fair i just wanted to hear your voice i just needed to hear your voice

chorus: what do i do with all i need to say so much i wanna tell you everyday though it breaks my heart i cry these tears in the dark i write these letters to you but they get lost in the blue cause theres no address in the stars

verse 2: now im drivin through the pitch black dark im screaming at the sky oh cause it hurts so bad everybody tells me oh ill i need is time then the mornin rolls in and it hits me again light aint nothin but a lie

chorus: what do i do with all i need to say so much i wanna tell you everyday though it breaks my heart i cry these tears in the dark i write these letters to you but they get lost in the blue cause theres no address in the stars

verse 3: without you here with me i dont know what to do id give anything just to talk to you though it breaks my heart oh it breaks my heart all i can do is write these letters to you but theres no address in the stars

They say time heals all wounds. However, as time moves on the pain only thickens. The more days that pass by, the more I'm reminded you're no longer here with us. I regret how I took our relationship for granted and wish more than anything I could turn back time. However, I can't and all I can do is be a better person because of you. You taught me so much about life and love; from the first time we dated to the last few weeks we hung out. I wish you could be here with all of us and we could see your bright smile and feel your hugs everyday! I feel your presence everyday and think of your outgoing personality. I pray that one day I can see you again-until then watch over your family and friends and God Bless Curtis!

Love,

Lacey!

Lacey

I will always remember the times you came out to my house and the crazy times at yours Curtis! The nights I always rushed home to beat curfew! Only got caught by the cops twice! I will especially remember when you took me fishing with the family and tyler-we sat out on the river just relaxing in your "sweet" boat! We both found out I wasn't the biggest fishergirl! Then when you would walk around the shore you had tshirt, swimming trunks and ur boots on! What a sight to see! haha I will always cherish our times together-happy or sad. Your smile will forever be sketched into my mind and heart! I will never forget you -nor stop thinking about you! I can't wait to see you again-but until then...God Bless and I love you!
